

MediaWorkStation Select Edition

Product Information

General

The „Select Edition“ marks the entry into the MediaWorkStation product family. Based on the approved technology of the elder versions it offers highly efficient functionality for recording and playing videos and individual images. The version also includes a database for an effective administration.

Functions

- Simple and intuitive user guide
- Recording of videos and individual pictures
- Structured saving of all recordings in a database
- Playing videos with random seek, enlargement and abstraction of individual images
- Display of individual images including detail selection and enlargement
- Manual input of descriptions
- Full-text search
- Export of images as files, including imbedded identification
- Print function for the direct printout of individual images
- Preview with split display for „live“ image and individual images
- Graphical overlay in the preview image
- Operation by touch screen including screen keyboard for text inputs
- Remote control for the recording function via foot switch, USB or by camera
- Direct control of camera settings of supported types of cameras
- Support of many types of cameras, frame grabbers and converters with USB- and IEEE1394 connection
- Individual graphical adjustment of the user surface via „skins“
- Context sensitive help programme online
- Automatic database backup
- Language selection for German, English, French, Italian, Spanish, Russian
- Completely compatible with all other MediaWorkStation editions

System requirements

- Microsoft Windows 7
latest information on www.mediaworkstation.de/maintenance.html
- Processor Intel Core i3 2,5 GHz
- Graphic board GMA 3000
- Display resolution 1024x768 pixel
- 2GB DDR3 RAM storage
- 200 GB fixed disk storage
- Video converter or camera with DirectShow support

The requirements are minimum values. A more powerful equipped computer, especially in processor speed, memory and storage space, is recommended.